

Three Keys to Rebuilding the Walls

Nehemiah 4:1-16

Calvary Chapel Chino Hills

Neh. 4:14

"And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, 'Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, great and awesome, and fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses.'"

Key Truth

Rebuilding spiritual walls is certain to generate opposition, but we must not fear or yield to the opposition, rather we must revere the One who is for us - remembering what He has done and recognizing what is at stake if we fail to act.

The background is a close-up photograph of a stone wall. The wall is constructed from irregular, roughly-hewn stones in various shades of grey, brown, and tan. Some stones are more rectangular and laid in a regular pattern, while others are more jagged and fill the spaces. The mortar is a light, weathered grey. The overall texture is rough and aged. A semi-transparent rectangular box is centered over the wall, containing the text.
