Introduction to the Text; 1 Timothy 2:1-5

Statement of Textual Summation and Theme

I Have With Me a Very "Politcially Correct" Flag in My Arms.
(can anyone of you recognize it or do you know it's meaning?)

Then Commander and Chief, General George Washington fitted his Naval squadrons with this Flag in the fall of 1775. The flag was a variation of the New England Pine Tree flag which was later modified and adopted by the Massachusetts Navy. The Revolutions "Sons of Liberty" would rally under a large tree, in Boston Massachusetts, which came to be known as "The Liberty Tree". This tree became a symbol of American independence. Knowing they were up against the greatest military power on earth, they believed they could only be sustained by still a Greater power, and so they thus made their "APPEAL TO HEAVEN".

And so We Also, With Perfect Political Correctness" and Biblical Correctness
Make Our "APPEAL TO HEAVEN".

"AMERICA'S CHOICE SHOULD BE THE WILL OF GOD"

“Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and to humbly implore His protection and favor... to be devoted by the people of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being who is the beneficent author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks for His kind care and protection of the people of this country... —for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed, and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; —and, in general, for all the great and various favors which He has been pleased to confer upon us... And also that we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations, and beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions...”

John Adams said in 1798

Thomas Jefferson

"Religion, deemed in other countries incompatible with good government yet proved by our experience to be its best support." "the constitutional freedom of religion is the most inalienable and sacred of all human rights."
"...The Bible is cornerstone of liberty;... students perusal of the sacred volume will make us better citizens."

“Is This Political or Spiritual? – Ask...

The father of the Constitution, James Madison, wrote in 1785 that "religion...is the basis and foundation of government...Before any man can be considered as a member of civil society, he must be considered as “a subject of the Governor of the Universe.”

Abraham Lincoln

"The only assurance of our nation's safety is to lay our foundation in morality and religion."

The father of the American Revolution was Samuel Adams, who said that to change any age in which we live we must simply "study and practice the exalted virtues of the Christian system." "While the people are virtuous," he said, "they cannot be subdued; but when once they lose their virtue they will be ready to surrender their liberties to the first external or internal invader... if virtue and knowledge are diffused among the people, they will never be enslaved. This will be their great Security.

Patrick Henry:

"It can not be emphasized to strongly or to often that this great nation was founded, not by religionists, but by Christians, not on religion(s) but on the Gospel of Jesus Christ! For this very reason peoples of other faiths have been afforded asylum here, prosperity here, and freedom of worship here."
